

Sandi Fernandez

(with a very brief appearance of Jose☺)

Sandi Fernandez was a beautiful and talented dancer in Los Angeles (married to Jose Fernandez). They graciously allowed us to stay on their front porch for a couple of weeks after an abortive visit to Atlanta, Ga to get our bearings (we did perform at a restaurant called “El Villa” in Charlotte, NC while we were there.

Jose was a legendary classical dancer who knew two flamenco creations; Estampio’s Zapateado and Regla Ortega’s Alegrias, both of which he taught Sandi. Sandi graciously allowed us to film the Alegrias, but wanted to film the Zapateado the next day. Things happened, and we never got around to the Zapateado, but Sandi’s talent is evident (even if at low light in her living room),

What a great couple; and the videos helped Suzie enormously when we returned to Santa Barbara.
